Clean Claim
A claim that may be processed without obtaining additional information from the provider of service or from a third party but does not include claims under investigation for fraud and abuse or claims under review for medical necessity.