Cognitive/Intellectual Disability
As defined in A.R.S. §36-551, a condition that involves sub-average general intellectual functioning, that exists concurrently with deficits in adaptive behavior manifested before age eighteen and that is sometimes referred to as intellectual disability.