

Crisis Services

Crisis services are provided to a person for the purpose of stabilizing or preventing a sudden, unanticipated or a potentially deleterious behavioral health condition, episode or behavior. Crisis services include risk analysis, assessment, crisis counseling, critical incident debriefing, and consultation.