

HIV-Related Information (A.R.S. § 36-661)

Information concerning whether a person has had an HIV-related or has HIV infection, HIV related illness or acquired immune deficiency syndrome and includes information which identifies or reasonably permits identification of that person or the person's contacts.