

Incident or Accident

Include the following:

- Deaths;
- Medication error(s) requiring medical services;
- Adverse reaction to medications requiring medical services;
- Suicide attempt requiring medical services;
- Self-inflicted injury requiring medical services;
- Suspected or alleged abuse;
- Suspected or alleged neglect;
- Suspected or alleged exploitation of client;
- Physical injury occurring on premises or during a licensee-sponsored activity requiring medical services;
- Food poisoning requiring medical services;
- Unauthorized absence from a residential agency, inpatient treatment program, Level IV transitional agency providing services to clients under the age of 18, or an adult in a therapeutic foster home;
- Physical injury that occurs as the result of a personal or mechanical restraint;
- Suspected or alleged criminal activity that occurs on the premises or during a licensee-sponsored activity off the premises;
- Incidents or allegations of violations of the rights contained in A.A.C. R9-20-203 for all enrolled persons or in 9 A.A.C. 21, Article 2 for persons determined to have a Serious Mental Illness; and
- Discovery that a client, staff member, or employee has a communicable disease listed in A.A.C. R9-6-202 (A) or (B).