

Low/Routine Acuity

When the level of danger to the person or others is such that the situation may be handled over the phone. For those persons not enrolled in the NARBHA network, an appointment for initial assessment will be provided within 7 days of referral or request for behavioral health services.