Medical Necessity Criteria (MNC)

Services by a provider to identify or treat an illness that has been diagnosed or suspected. The services are consistent with the diagnosis and treatment of a condition and the standards of good medical practice. The services are required for other than convenience, and are the most appropriate supply or level of service.