Quality of Care Concern (QOC)
An allegation that any aspect of care, or treatment, or utilization of behavioral health services caused or could have caused an acute medical/psychiatric condition or an exacerbation of a chronic medical/psychiatric condition and may ultimately cause the risk of harm to the behavioral health recipient.