Special Populations
Populations of people that may include, but not limited to individuals that are underrepresented/underserved and fall into population groups that are made vulnerable, at risk or hard to reach because of:

- economic disadvantage,
- limited language competence,
- cultural/geographical isolation,
- age group
- physical, mental, cognitive or sensory disability