

Urgent Acuity

When the danger to the person or others is judged to be serious enough that services need to be delivered within 2 to 24 hours of the determination of need. Time frame is determined by clinical need but may not exceed 24 hours.